Rarely does an impressive home of such classic style and grand proportions become available for purchase. This beautifully presented free-standing Victorian residence has recently undergone a stylish renovation which thoughtfully combines the elegance and grace of a bygone era with modern family living.

Enter through a leaded side-lit front door to a generous hall which opens onto the traditional formal lounge/ dining rooms featuring rich cedar joinery, polished timber floors, lofty ornate ceilings and four original fire places. A cedar staircase spans the three levels. Accommodation consists of four double bedrooms, master with en-suite, three have balconies, some with built-in robes. The fourth bedroom is attic style and occupies the entire third level.
