Perfect for a work-from-home lifestyle, this large, unfurnished one-bedroom plus study apartment is set in a charming boutique Art Deco building. Featuring spacious, light-filled interiors, high patterned ceilings, a delightful Art Deco bathroom with a bathtub, polished timber floors, and oversized sash windows, this home exudes classic elegance.

The generous floor plan offers two distinct wings at either end of a long hallway, with a large master bedroom and an adjoining guest bedroom or study, ideal for flexible living arrangements. The eat-in kitchen opens onto a timber deck with stunning Anzac Bridge views and provides access to a large common terrace and shared laundry facilities.
